Metro East Real Estate Investors Association – Member Code of Ethics

The ownership and management of Real Estate is a free enterprise. The members of Metro East Real Estate Investors Association (MEREIA) desire to conduct this enterprise with the utmost of professionalism.

The MEREIA member is civic-minded and operates within the highest of standards. He/She recognizes that the interests of the community require the highest and best use of the land and buildings. The MEREIA member recognizes the need for adequate housing and the preservation of a healthful living environment. Thus, the members share a common responsibility to maintain and improve housing. The letters, MEREIA, therefore will be synonymous with the competency, fairness and integrity of its members. Every MEREIA member agrees to conduct business in accordance with the articles set forth below:

1. The member will not discriminate against any person for reasons of race, color, religion, age, national origin sex, familial status or handicap.
2. The member will recognize that residents are our customers and we are in a service industry.
3. The member will not engage in any illegal practices and always conduct business in a professional manner.
4. The member will not cheat, wrong or defraud any other member, owner or resident.
5. The member has an obligation to help another member whenever possible.
6. The member should endeavor to stay informed on matters affecting housing in the community.
7. The member shall keep informed regarding local, state and federal law.
8. The member will be aware of the needs and concerns of our community and as a property owner will make every effort to respond to those needs and concerns.

I have read and agree to the MEREIA Code of Ethics. Signed: _____
